

Cardi-OH Update

The Ohio Cardiovascular & Diabetes Health Collaborative (Cardi-OH) is a statewide initiative of health care professionals who share knowledge to improve Medicaid patient outcomes and eliminate health disparities across Ohio.

Register Now!

Webinar

Management of Type 2 Diabetes in the Adolescent and Young Adult: Preventing Diabetes-Related Comorbidities and Bridging the Transition to Adulthood

Wednesday, December 1, 2021
12 - 1 p.m.

This 1.00 CME credit webinar will review evidence-based guidelines to improve patient care, describe family-based assessments and approaches to enhance diabetes management, and identify transition of care models and technology to prevent treatment lapses and urgent medical care for adolescents and young adults with type 2 diabetes.

CME offered at no cost.

CLICK TO REGISTER →

WEBINAR
Wednesday, December 1, 2021
12 - 1 p.m.

Management of Type 2 Diabetes in the Adolescent and Young Adult: Preventing Diabetes-Related Comorbidities and Bridging the Transition to Adulthood

SPEAKERS

Rose Gebhart-Klug, MD, PhD
Professor of Child Health, Cincinnati Children's Hospital Medical Center
Director, Adolescent Medicine Program

Erika Langstaff, MD, MS
Assistant Professor, Adult & Pediatric Endocrinology, University of Cincinnati

This 1.00 CME credit webinar will review evidence-based guidelines to improve patient care, describe family-based assessments and approaches to enhance diabetes management, and identify transition of care models and technology to prevent treatment lapses and urgent medical care for adolescents and young adults with type 2 diabetes.

ADVANCED REGISTRATION REQUIRED:
Click to Register

QUESTIONS:
If you have any questions or need assistance with registration, please contact the CME Office at cmec@cardi-oh.org or call 614-792-2222.

SPONSORING INSTITUTIONS:
Cincinnati Children's Hospital Medical Center, University of Cincinnati, Ohio State University, etc.

Click to view the informational flyer.

Register Now!

Spring 2022 TeleECHO Clinic Weight Management and Behavior Change: Cases and Discussions

January 27 to April 14, 2022

Project
ECHO
CARDI-OH
Ohio Cardiovascular &
Diabetes Health Collaborative

LEARN MORE about

Thursdays, 8 - 9 a.m.

Cardi-OH has partnered with Project ECHO[®] to support primary care providers to safely and effectively treat cardiovascular disease and diabetes.

Using simple video conferencing technology and case based learning, Cardi-OH ECHO creates a unique partnership between community health care providers and a team of multidisciplinary specialists from Ohio's leading medical centers.

CLICK TO REGISTER →

Cardi-OH ECHO and view a highlight from the Fall 2021 TeleECHO Clinic Your Patient with Diabetes at Risk for Heart Disease: A Series of Case Discussions, featuring Liz Beverly, PhD, from Ohio University.

Tune in to Cardi-OH Radio

Cardi-OH  Radio

Talking With Your Patients: Medication Side Effects and Adverse Events

Check out the latest podcast featuring Marilee Clemons, PharmD, from the University of Toledo, and Dean Bricker, MD, from Wright State University.

CLICK TO LISTEN →

News You Can Use

Cardi-OH
CURRENTS

American College of Cardiology Releases Guidance to Address ASCVD Risk for Patients With Persistent Hypertriglyceridemia

Currents provide brief summaries of the latest advances in medicine or clinical practice related to diabetes or hypertension and include links to additional resources.

CLICK TO VIEW →

Learn More!

To learn more about the collaborative and read up on the latest best practices, visit cardi-oh.org or follow us on Twitter and like us on Facebook.

Sharing best practices to improve cardiovascular and diabetes health.

In partnership with:

